

For Immediate Release 12-24-09::::

Alex Manga, Owner, Manga Racing Academy's announces its 2010 Motocross Team: "I am pleased to post our roster for 2010" said Manga. This is a group of athletes that have a lot to bring to the table and are in the process of developing and burgeoning both competitive and rewarding Pro and amateur motocross careers. "I am looking for bigger things out of Wagner this year as he gets back on his feet after ACL replacement surgery, his involvement with Yamaha for the past three years have been both outstanding and a lifetime experience. Williamson will captain the Am team as both an anchor and leader both at home and nationally—Manga

Brett Wagner (Michigan)
Jacob Williamson (Michigan)
Cassandra Stephens (Ohio)
Daniel Grigoletti (Illinois)
Gina Grigoletti (Illinois)
Morgan Brown (North Carolina)
Hank Cahill (Kansas)
Clay Word (Kentucky)

About Manga Racing Academy's: Alex Manga travels extensively throughout the United States training and mentoring children through teenagers building amateur motocross careers and athletes through his Academy's. These classes are open to the public for enrollment and also include private training as well. Learn more about Manga Racing Academy's at www.mangaracingacademy's.com j/c/l –Syndicated Marketing NY.NY.